I have become aware of a proposed ordinance to levy an annual fee upon vacant commercial properties to serve as encouragement for owners of vacant land to take some action to get these properties back as useful, productive land.

I am also aware that an investor has proposed a leniency on properties actively marketed for sale. I am fully supportive of this proposed waiver since the goal is to encourage the development of vacant land. Further, I would propose that an exemption also be given for property owners making a meaningful gesture to improve the marketability of the land.

Sincerely,
