Dear Mayor Lucas and KCMO City Council,

The Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City is a 44-year-old organization that has been focused on engaging, connecting, and developing the Hispanic business community within the entire KC metro area. Our members are dedicated to our mission and values, and always make sure to promote the goals that will help Kansas City grow in a positive way.

In that time, they have repeatedly proven their commitment to Minority and Women Owned Businesses and our mission of advancing the business community in the KC metro area. It has been an honor to work together to advance our mission and positively impact our local economy and our community.

The Hispanic Chamber of Commerce endorses McCownGordon Construction for the new Barney Allis Plaza Redevelopment Project. McCownGordon has a commitment to Supplier Diversity to ensure that their projects exceed the goals of the client.

We would ask for your support of McCownGordon in the procurement of this contract.

Sincerely,
