To Whom it May Concern:

Please support ordinance 220961. These areas with old growth trees are a huge part of our community and the benefits they provide to our local ecology and health are very important.

--Erin Scott