[COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR] ORDINANCE NO. 231019, AS AMENDED

Sponsor: Mayor Quinton Lucas
Committee Substitute

Amending various sections of Chapter 38, “Civil Rights,” and Chapter 34, “Health and Sanitation,” for the purpose of classifying source of income as a protected trait in regard to housing discrimination, requiring an annual report on source of income discrimination complaints and enforcement, and requiring standard language in rental applications; and directing the City Manager to provide notification of this ordinance through various communication channels and identify an annual source of funding to implement the provisions of this ordinance; reducing the Contingent Appropriation by $1,000,000.00 in the General Fund; appropriating that amount for the Landlord Risk Mitigation Fund Pilot Program; and designating requisitioning authority.

WHEREAS, discrimination on the basis of cash income, such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), child support, tipped wages, and rental assistance is also rampant; and

WHEREAS, nearly half of residents residing in voucher-based households are children; and

WHEREAS, the Housing Choice Voucher Program, codified at 42 U.S.C. §1437f and often referred to as Section 8 of the Housing Act of 1937, was designed to increase opportunities for poor families and reduce the concentration of poverty by neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, the program does not work as intended for many participants, primarily because property owners will not accept their vouchers, leading to tenants not being able to utilize the voucher; and

WHEREAS, a growing number of states and localities have enacted laws, known as source of income protection laws, that can increase voucher acceptance, including the other Missouri cities of St. Louis, Webster Groves, and Clayton; and

WHEREAS, the City has substantial interest in reducing homelessness by increasing housing opportunity for renters by preventing discrimination based on a prospective tenant’s lawful and reasonably verifiable source of income; and

WHEREAS, the number of property owners who accept renters regardless of lawful source of income is significantly increased when a source of income protection law is in place, and the likelihood of a voucher holder finding housing in a higher-income, higher opportunity area increases; NOW, THEREFORE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KANSAS CITY:

Section 1. That Chapter 38 of the Code of Ordinances entitled “Civil Rights” is hereby amended by to any person, because of a protected trait, other than, in the case of a potential sale, source of income.

- (4) To represent to any person, because of a protected trait, that any dwelling is not available for inspection, sale or rental when such dwelling is in fact so available, other than, in the case of a potential sale, source of income.
- (5) To induce or attempt to induce any person to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of persons of a particular protected trait, other than, in the case of a potential sale, source of income.
- (6) For a person in the business of insuring against hazards to refuse to enter into or discriminate in the terms, conditions or privileges of a contract of insurance against hazards to a dwelling because of a protected trait pertaining to persons owning or residing in or near the dwelling, other than, in the case of a potential sale, source of income.
- (7) To discriminate in the sale or rental or to otherwise make unavailable or deny a dwelling to any buyer or renter because of a disability of:

If a prospective tenant has a voucher, the landlord's requirement for any rent-to-income ratio shall apply only with respect to the portion of rent not covered by such prospective tenant's voucher amount, consistent with state and federal law, including, but not limited to, fair housing laws.
- (11) To refuse to rent to a tenant solely because of an adverse credit report or lack of credit history without reference to additional information provided pursuant to Section 38-105(e).
- (12) To refuse to rent to a tenant solely because of prior evictions or alleged damages without reference to additional information provided pursuant to Section 38-105(e), except that prior evictions or alleged damages that occurred within one year of the date that the tenant would begin a new rental agreement may result in refusal to rent to that tenant.
- (13) To refuse to rent to a tenant solely because of prior convictions or arrests without reference to additional information provided pursuant to Section 38-105(e).
- (14) To increase charges, reduce services, or require the tenant bear financial or other responsibility for any penalties imposed as a result of violating sections 38-105, 38-111 or 38-113.
- (15) It shall not constitute a violation of this subsection to deny a rental application based on reference to two or more factors described in Section 38-105(d)(10)-(d)(14).

Denying an application based on reference to such factors specific to the individual applicant shall not constitute a violation of this Section.

- (1) An owner shall not be responsible for misinformation or incorrect information obtained from third parties as part of screening practices so long as the landlord uses reasonable diligence in assessing the veracity and reliability of third-party information, and identifies the third-party source used. An owner who used misinformation or incorrect information to deny an application shall reconsider an application upon receipt of corrected information.

(f) Anytime a person denies an application for rental housing, said person must inform the prospective tenant that their application was denied.

- (1) If a prospective tenant requests the rationale for their denied application, the person who denied their application must affirmatively state that it was not on the basis of their membership of a protected class or a protected trait as defined by this chapter, and inform the prospective tenant in writing of their rights as defined by this chapter.

(g) For purposes of this section, the term "discrimination" includes:

- (1) A refusal to permit at the expense of the disabled person reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by such person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the premises; except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter's agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted;
- (2) A refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices or services, when such accommodations may be necessary to afford such person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or
- (3) In connection with the design and construction of covered multifamily dwellings for first occupancy, a failure to design and construct those dwellings in a manner that:
 - a. The public and common use portions of such dwellings are readily accessible to and usable by disabled persons. This shall include at least one building entrance on an accessible route unless it is impracticable to do so because of the terrain or unusual characteristics of the site;

Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American National Standard for buildings and facilities providing accessibility and usability for physically disabled persons, commonly cited as ANSI A117.1, suffices to satisfy that the requirements of subsection (b)(3)a of this section are met.

- (4) For purposes of subsections (a)(7) and (8) of this section, discrimination includes any act that would be discrimination under 42 USC 3604(f)(3) through (9).

(h) Nothing in this section shall apply to rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other if the owner actually maintains or occupies one of such living quarters as the owner's residence, and if the dwelling contains any rooms, except hallways, which are shared by the families or the owner.

(i) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a religious organization, association or society, or any nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association or society, from discriminating in the sale, rental or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose on the basis of religion, sexual orientation or gender identity, or from giving preference to persons on those bases.

(j) In the event any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or portions of this section is declared invalid for any reason, the remainder of this section shall remain in full force and effect.

(d) The director shall also conduct random audits four times per month of rental advertisements for discriminatory language against any protected group. The director shall also randomly conduct four fair housing testing audits per year. If the director finds discriminatory behavior in these investigations, they will pursue action accordingly.

(e) In the event any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or portions of this section is declared invalid for any reason, the remainder of this section shall remain in full force and effect.
